

Process Training

A weekend of facilitation training, process work and community For Men and Women

at the Kuempel Men's Center, 1900 W Fulton, Chicago
March 10 & 11, 2007

What Happens On The Weekend:

- Opportunities to do your own work, using a variety of tools
- Clear, specific instruction in process work facilitation
- Opportunities to practice your facilitation, with mentoring and feedback
- Time to look at some deep stuff, and help other men look at deep stuff
- Being part of a growing facilitation community
- Having fun!

Workshop Leader:

David Kaar (Lion, February '88). Certified NWTA full leader since 1993, David has held many positions with the ManKind Project., Past Chairman of the ManKind Project, Leader-trainer and certified, facilitates LT1, LT2, LT3 -- Co-Leader trainings, carpet work facilitation trainings and is a past leader of the Inner King Training.

Who Should Consider Coming?

You would probably like this weekend if you:

- Want to practice facilitation with expert mentors
- Want to be facilitated by very experienced men
- Are drawn to process work facilitation, and want to learn more
- Want to know the "nuts and bolts" of process work
- Want to learn a rational, orderly and effective "model" for process work
- Want to do more of your own work and raise the level of work in your I Group.
- Want to be in a growing community of men who facilitate each other

Questions and Registration:

David Kaar 612-275-5165 drkaar@mkp.org

Cost $200, reductions available, discounts for I Groups.