What are systemic family constellations?

Popular in Europe for over 20 years, Systemic Constellation Work is an innovative approach, quickly becoming well known and utilized in the United States. Based upon the Family Constellation work of Bert Hellinger, a renowned German psychotherapist, Systemic Constellation Work can reveal hidden dynamics from past generations of our family systems.

Referred to as 'entanglements', these dynamics have an unconscious, compelling power that can enmesh us in fates that do not belong to us. Sometimes dating back several generations, to family ancestors who were unable to resolve difficulties within their lives, these dynamics may reappear in our own lives. Through unconscious loyalties to our family systems, we soul bond with other family members, becoming 'entangled' in their fates and living out their difficulties ourselves.

Through Systemic Constellation Work, these ancestral influences are identified and acknowledged. The 'blind love' which has been influencing our lives can be transformed into 'enlightened love'. Once this occurs, the associated emotional and physical suffering can be gently and compassionately transformed, bringing peace, renewing strength and allowing us to move forward in our lives with grace and dignity.
